YANG CERDAS BY ENDYAS WIGUNA OF IMAM AL-GHAZALI

APPENDIX

In Endyas Wiguna Fairy tale, tell about a Mouse deer and Crocodile. One day there was a cannibal who was being chased by a dog. This clever animal hides in the bush so that the dog does not know its existence. After feeling safe, he went across the river to forage. Arriving at the river he did not know how to cross it. He made sense by making a raft to cross the river. When kancil was about to pull the raft, unwittingly a large crocodile stalked him, Kancil's legs were pounced on by crocodiles "arghhhh, wait a minute pak crocodile! Said The Kancil" wait let alone my stomach is hungry nih" replied Crocodile. Kancil persuaded him to drive him across the river to get food. Finally the crocodile drove Kancil across the river. After Kancil was full he came up with the idea of returning to the riverbank, he told the crocodile to count the number of his friends in order to know how to divide the meat. The crocodile was lined up neatly, Kancil jumped from the back of the crocodile to the back of another crocodile while counting. Arriving at the banks of the river Kancil waving, mr. Crocodile shouted and realized that he had been deceived by The Kancil.
