

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, the researcher will present the conclusion of the study and suggestion that can be useful in the future. The conclusion relates to the result of the moral values found in the novel entitled Muallaf based on the theory of Linda and Richard Eyre and the impacts of novel entitled Muallaf in education. The suggestion is given to the teacher, students, and next researcher.

A. Conclusion

After analysing the novel, the researcher concluded that there are twelve kinds of moral values that have been found in the novel entitled Muallaf based on the theory of Linda and Richard Eyre. They are honesty, bravery, peace ability, self-reliance and potential, self-discipline and moderation, purity and pureness, loyalty and trustworthy, respect, love and affection, sensitive and not selfish, kind and friendly, fair and humane.

Besides that, after reading and analysing moral values in the novel entitled Muallaf, some impacts could be obtained. Moral values found in the novel entitled Muallaf could help students learn about good attitude and behaviour, so that it could help the students to manage their behaviour to be a well-behaved human or good human. Teachers could use the novel as a learning media, so that it could help the teachers get the example to educate the students related to moral values that is useful for them in their daily life. So that, it can help teachers to make students being not only smart and clever, but also having good manners, behaviours, and attitudes. It is important to give attention towards moral education especially in this modern era which mostly give bad impacts to students, so that students could protect their selves facing this era.

B. Suggestion

After finishing the analysis of moral values found in the novel entitled Muallaf and knowing the impacts of novel entitled Muallaf in education, it can be a source to learn about moral values that can be applied in our daily life. There are some suggestions that are put by the researcher as follows:

1. For the Teacher

The teacher should be creative in teaching students by using many sources and media in learning process. So that, students could be more interested and not easy to be bored. It can also give many impacts in learning process, such as teacher can educate their students relate to good things that they need to do in their social life like moral values.

2. For the Students

Students are expected to gain additional knowledge relate to moral values. Besides that, students are also expected to apply good moral values that have been found in the novel, so that they can interact with other people in their social life in a correct way.

3. For Next Researchers

It is expected to give information and become a reference for the next researchers that would to study about moral values in other novel by using different perspective.
