a). Bobby : 13 meters you have to see it

Brock : good, take him up to the bow of the ship

Bobby : okay, mir-2, we're going to bow. Stay with us

Brock : well we move. Seeing it emerge from the dark like a ghost ship. he still always amazes me to see the majestic wreckage sitting here. Where he sank at 2:30 in the morning on April 15, 1912 after he had long since drowned from the world above

Lewis : you're full of bullshit, boss

(Duration, 00:03:20)

The slang in the dialogue above is "you're full of bullshit, boss".

Ronald Wardhaugh state in the book that slang in this conversation including the slang in the past tense of slang by some speakers. In his book an introduction to sociolinguistics the word of slang can also be used to mean sex, drug dealing, and the past tense. In urban dictionary Ronald Wardhaugh state that slang is the continual and ever-changing use and definition of words in informal conversation, often references as a means of comparison or showing likeness<sup>1</sup>. Some modern slang has endured over the decades since its inception (i.e. cool) and some will only last a few years before being rendered obsolete or outdated (i.e. bling-bling). Slang can be born from any number of situations or ideas (the word slang itself has come to represent selling, especially of illegal drugs), and can be blunt or riddled with metaphor, and often quite profound. The use of slang is frequently ridiculed by culturally-ignorant people who feel it is the product of insufficient education and believe it to be counter-evolutionary; of course, they couldn't be farther from the truth. Slang is used by all kinds of groups of people who share situations or interests. The group which uses these words is always in the minority, and often use slang to set themselves apart or make it difficult for ordinary people to understand them. Slang is the words that are not a part of standard vocabulary or language, and which are used informally.

thought to have drowned along with the sinking of the Titanic ship, but what they found in the iron box after the search is simply a painting of a woman who uses a diamond necklace. And the woman in the painting was the Rose Dewitt Bukater learned of the news about her painting, she immediately contacted Brock and asked about the painting. Brock also asked who the woman in the painting used the diamond necklace. Rose Dewitt Bukater innocently also told that the woman in the painting was herself. But Lewis did not believe that the painting was Rose. He thought that Rose Dewitt Bukater died in Titanic when she was 17 years old, and she thought everyone who knew about the diamonds had died.

And finally Rose Dewitt Bukater and her granddaughter found Brock in the keldysh, Rose Dewitt Bukater during her journey to keldysh only thought of her new painting that was discovered after 84 years from the sinking of the Titanic ship. And after arriving in keldysh he saw her own picture, she remembered when she was on the Titanic ship first. And then Lewis explained his analysis of the sinking of the Titanic ship which was scraped against the iceberg, Rose Dewitt Bukater tried to remember back in Titanic, she also remembered when she was in Titanic then Brock took his recorder and told. Rose Dewitt Bukater to tell him and finally Rose Dewitt Bukater also told it when she boarded the Titanic ship clearly which had passed about 84 years from the incident. So he did that so Rose hated Jack. Rose is confused and Jack is taken by a Titanic officer and locked in a room.

In this (Duration, 02:08:27) the word appears when the Titanic ship will sink due to being rubbed against the iceberg and all Titanic passengers will be copied to a small boat so that it can be quickly rescued. While Mr. Andrews and Mr. Lightoller are confused because the boat is lowered with a load of 20 people usually 65 people. While Rose is still looking for a tool to save Jack in law in a room. And the other passengers are sad because they will part with their partners, because the women and children sent down firstly. But inside there are still women left behind and then the men break down the door to help the women who are still inside.

b.) Titanic officers : welcome madam, welcome to Titanic.

Rose : Titanic is another dream ship. To me it is slave ship that took me to America to be a prison. From the outside, I was a normal and happy girl. but deep down, I screamed.

Fabrizio : Jack, you're crazy. You bet everything.

Jack : when you have nothing, you don't lose anything.

Sven : you idiot. I can't believe you bet our ticket.

Jack : sven ?

Sven : I'm in

Jack : Alright, time to decide. Someone's life will change. Fabrizio?
nothing?

Fabrizio : Nothing

Jack : Olaf?

Olaf : Nothing

Jack : Sven?

Sven : Nothing

Jack : two pairs, forgive me fabrizio.

Fabrizio : You jerk! You bet all our money?

Jack : Sorry, because you will see your mother's face again for a long time. Because we're going to America , full house, friends, come on , I'm going home!

Fabrizio : I'm going home, I'm going to America!

Titanic officers : No friend, Titanic will be to America in 5 minutes.

Jack : damn, fabri hurry up. we will became classy people, we will succeed, man.

Fabrizio : You see? this is my destiny. Like I said, I went to America to become a millionaire.

Jack : you're crazy. Maybe, but I won the ticket. I guess you are fast. wait! hey wait! we are passengers!

Titanic officers : You guys have passed the inspection queue

Jack : Of course. Besides, we don't have fleas. We are both Americans.

Titanic officers : Ok, come on up.

Jack : We are the luckiest jerk in the world, you know that? good bye

Fabrizio : Do you know someone?

Jack : No, That's not the point, good bye, I'll miss you guys Fabrizio : Good bye, I will never forget you guys!

(Duration, 00:26:48)

In Ronald Wardhaugh book an introduction to sociolinguistics the word of slang can also be used to mean sex, drug dealing, and the past tense.

The word jerk is found in several durations namely, (Duration, 00:26:48), and (Duration, 01:41:39)

In this (Duration, 00:26:48) this word appears when Jack, Fabrizio, Olaf, and Sven play a ticket bet to be able to board the Titanic ship to get to America and in the end Jack wins the game, after Titanic will depart 5 more minutes. Finally, Jack and Fabrizio happily rushed to the Titanic because the Titanic was leaving soon. They are very happy because they are going home to America. They also boarded the Titanic ship happily and said good bye to those who were different at the port.

In this (Duration, 01:41:39) the word appears when the Titanic guards suddenly see a lump of iceberg ahead and he contacts the Titanic captain to maximize his speed and turn it, gradually Titanic turns but the bottom edge is rubbed on the iceberg and the titanic ship leaked. Everything in the titanic was shocked because the boat was shaking. They were looking for a way so that they could all be safe, those on the ground floor ran to the upper floors that could still be occupied and not yet entered the water, but gradually the sea water entered to the Titanic ship almost to the top floor and the engine stopped. All the passengers on the top floor asked why the boat had stopped, after leaving the passenger room the Titanic ship was shocked because there was water along the titanic boat. Some titanic ship officers are confused about finding solution to be saved. The Titanic officer conferred that the ship would float with five (5) compartment, because when the front of sank the sea water would flood the upper part of the watertight bulkhead on deck E, from one to the other then the back could not be stopped.

The Titanic officer plans to turn on the pump because the pump will only delay the sinking of the titanic ship even though for a short time and from now on the Titanic ship will sink because the ship is made of iron and takes a maximum of 1-2 hours and many passengers aboard the titanic ship is 2,200 people. All the titanic ship officials were confused and told all passengers to use buoys. But on the other hand Calvert is torturing Rose in a room because Calvert is very angry with Rose. Then Mr. Andrews told Rose that the Titanic ship would sink and told her to use a buoy and get out of the boat to move to the small boat that was available right. But Rose prefers not to get on the boat and she goes back inside to look for Jack and help him who is locked up inside, because their love is too strong so that no one can separate them both in any condition on that Titanic ship. And Rose also managed to save Jack and they both also find a way out.
